

Paul in Two Sentences

The ascended Christ called Saul into a ministry to the Gentiles. Changing his name to Paul, Christ gave the Apostle the ministry of reconciliation to GO to the Gentiles, and the word of reconciliation to Preach to the Gentiles. This was God's new message to the world in a new era of mankind.

Paul wrote 13 epistles (letters) to the churches of Asia minor and to individuals. In these letters, Paul spoke of himself, his ministry, his sufferings, addressed problems the churches were experiencing, problems with those proclaiming Judaism to the Gentile Church, individuals preaching a false Gospel, among other things.

If you took everything that Paul ever said, and boiled it all down to the bare essence, you would be left with two bullet points that God wants the world to hear:

Paul's Gospel

- Christ died for our sins and salvation is now available to all mankind by God's grace through our faith in turning to God.

Paul's Mystery

- Christ in you: The Spirit of God now abides in those who belong to God.

Of course you will want to read all of Paul's words, but here you have the take-away.
