

I Never Knew You

The Christianity of today is not found anywhere in the Bible: neither the Roman, Orthodox, Anglican, nor Protestant varieties. All these religions are made-up. Christianity is a religion established before the 4th century: a combination of many influences from philosophy, science-so-called, Humanism, Hedonism, knowledge, superstition, traditions, paganism, and a Gentile religion called Christian.

In 313 AD, in a political move to unite all religions into one, the Emperor Constantine sanctioned the official religion of Rome, calling it “Christianity” after his mothers religion. This was not the Pauline Body of Christ, and the Spirit of God was not associated with this new-fangled, one-size-fits-all religion. Neither was God or God’s Spirit.

Fun Fact: The Christian worship model of going to a Church building to corporately worship God and confess sins is decidedly Catholic, and the Roman pagan Christian Church picked that up from Old Testament Jewish anthology and pagan temple worship. “Church” and “religion” as our culture defines these words today, does not exist in the Bible, and are not part of the Body of Christ, aka Christ’s Church of Pauline believers in Paul’s ministry.

The abiding Spirit of God, the mystery hidden in God from the foundation of the world, was Paul’s Gospel. The Spirit in man is the miracle that replaced all the first-century miracles including tongues, healings, signs, and wonders. The Spirit also replaced the Jewish sacrificial system, and the idea that there is a place man must go to approach God in temples, tabernacles, synagogues, churches, alters, and other such worship places, buildings, and structures.

The Protestant church is a derivative of Jewish / Catholic / pagan practices and decidedly not a part of the Pauline Body of Christ. As Paul says, we are the temple of the Holy Spirit and God is in you. The Spirit negates the brick and mortar store-front churches, and puts the Pauline believer spiritually “online” with God.

Covenant Religion

In the 5th Century, Augustine, a bishop of the Roman Church, gathered many bits and pieces of various religions together and created what would be called Covenant Theology. It is a humanistic religion that has survived these many centuries, mostly unchanged.

Covenant Theology is a satanic religion. Its goal is keeping people from God and the truth of the Bible, and to claim as many souls as possible for Hades.

The Christian Church, in its Reformed Theology and Covenant religion, Replacement Theology, and Amillennial imaginings, was never biblical as the fruit of nearly two millennia bears witness. It was, and is, a religion of out-of-context Bible verses, made-up traditions, superstitions, imaginations, mysticism, stories, and fables, extra-biblical writings, errant beliefs and rituals, wrapped up in a false religion of candles, statues, beads, chants, costumes, empty practices in a form of liturgical pomp and show, totally void of God and His Spirit.

The Roman pagan Christian Church, for 1200 years, hid the Bible, and made it illegal to own, read, translate, or print the Word of God. As a result, the people throughout these centuries were held hostage in ignorance by their religion.

In the 16th century, Bibles came off the presses faster than the perverse church could destroy them. People soon began to leave the Roman Church, protesting what they saw as an apostate government religion.

Leaving their old religion did not make the people smarter. They simply left a failed religion, taking with them the same teachings that made their former religion fail. They still had Augustine's Covenant Theology, and still lacked the Spirit of God. So, the best they could do was mechanically read the words in the Bible and try to figure out what they meant. They had Sola This, and Sola That, but no understanding or Spiritual guidance. The result was a proliferation of religious beliefs that had nothing to do with the truth of the Bible. These religions remain with us to this day, unchanged.

Anti-Zionism

Neither the Protestant religion, nor the religion of Rome ever had God's blessing or God's Spirit. The main reason for this is Christianity's despise of God's people, the Jews, expressed in their belief found in something they call Replacement Theology, and more recently, anti-Zionism.

In Replacement Theology, the Christian Church believes they are the sons of promise, the replacement for the Jews, and that God is through with the Jews. They believe God has chosen Christianity to take the place of the Jews, that God's blessings, and the promises He made to the Jews now belong to the Christian Church, though the curses remain upon the Jews. Christianity believes God did not give the Jews the promised land, and to top it off, Christianity ignorantly and arrogantly believes they (Christians) are the true Israel.

A cursory reading of the Bible would quickly dispel all the above errant beliefs as pure fiction, so, the Christian Church is without excuse. One must ask if Christianity realizes that the Jews they hate, the people Jesus called brethren, are still God's chosen, and that Jesus himself was a Jew, and Jesus is pro-Jew, and so is God.

God can no more bless Christianity and their unbiblical view of God, the Jews, Jesus, and the Bible than He can bless Mormonism: both flaunt the King James Bible and both are false religions. Lacking the blessings of God means no Spirit, no unity, no salvation, and no Bible, as the Word of God is set in confusion and they cannot understand its truths. Bible confusion is the reason for their lack of unity and their fragmented religions (if you ever wondered).

It is ironic that Christianity condemns the unchurched and other religions, issuing a stern warning that Jesus will deny them for their many false words, works, and vain efforts done in His name. Yet, they have never stopped to consider, and I am sure they could never imagine, that the very condemnation they rail against others applies equally to them.

Fun Fact: Notice that the Mormon and Catholic Churches are alive and well in this day-and-age despite their total ignorance of all things God and Bible. Hinduism and Islam also thrive as does the Anglican Church, Orthodoxy, Buddhism, and Confucianism. So too, the cults and the occults, the atheists, and agnostics, and religions of the far east. There are numerous other religions that fit this mold including the many shades of Protestantism. All told, these belief systems represent billions of lost souls, the vast bulk of humanity.

God allows these false religions and non religions to continue as the wheat and the tares. Very soon, the removal of the Body of Christ from the earth (the rapture) will separate God's children from the lost and the religious, who follow a form of godliness, but deny the power thereof.

Jesus Speaks to You

Jesus says to the false Christian religion of the last 2000 years, and the church of today, the corrupt tree, who pretend to follow God, playing church, void of the Spirit, with a false gospel, a false Jesus, a false god, and a false spirit, who doeth not the will of His Father.

Matthew 7:18-23 A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither [can] a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them. Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works?

And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.
