

The Morning After

Very soon, Christ will return in the air for His church, effectively removing God's Spirit from the world. What will the morning after look like for those who remain on earth? Who are these that remain? What can these people expect in what little time remains of their lives?

The Last Seven Years

While the removal of Christ's Church from the world may not immediately initiate the seven-year Tribulation recorded in the Old Testament book of Daniel, and the New Testament book "The Book of the Revelation", it will not be long afterwards before the appearance of the Antichrist ushers in the events of the Tribulation.

Those who remain after the removal of Christ's Church will endure a world under the wrath of God. It is easy to look around today and believe life will continue as always, but it will not. What does life look like for those who remain on planet earth during the short time they have left after the calling out of the Body of Christ? Those who remain, alienated from God, will find a world of terrors going from bad to unthinkable. Of that time, the Bible says it has never been so bad and will never be again. Read the words of Jesus to the Jews:

Matthew 24

21 for then there will be a great tribulation, such as has not occurred since the beginning of the world until now, nor ever shall.

22 "And unless those days had been cut short, no life would have been saved; but for the sake of the elect those days shall be cut short.

Those who remain

The modern-day religions are full of religious people who believe that attending church and doing church stuff will get them into Heaven. "Stuff" includes church attendance, baptism (any variety, any age), communion, choir, tithing, social work, lighting candles, praying for the dead, praying with beads, praying to statues, praying to saints and idols and demigods, praying to the false goddess Mary, praying to the fake "Jesus" god religion created, praying in some babbling noise, praying while flailing their hands, repetitious prayers, being celibate, suffering, sacrificing, following some kind of religious diet, monastic living, wearing religious costumes, living in a commune, reading the Bible, learning the Catechism, being a priest, sister, minister, pastor, preacher, or Sunday school teacher, and the like.

None of these things singularly or collectively will satisfy God's righteousness or get a person into Heaven, or qualify anyone for the coming rapture. The "stuff" is all a variation of humanism and religiosity in so many false, fortune cookie religions of trite little sayings, errant doctrines, and rules and laws. This stuff is what the Bible calls "filthy rags" in the sight of God. These people think they are right in what they do, but are not. These are the people to whom the real Jesus says "I never knew you". The people left behind.

The morning after the rapture, the Christian churches will be full of faithful church attendees who practice a religion about God, but deny the power thereof. They do not have the all-important relationship with God, the Spirit of God, and have never received the truth so as to be saved. This is an uncountable number of many souls who will quickly realize something is very wrong with their world. The rest are so deceived they will never understand, including church leaders, theologians, and the “great thinkers” of our time who today are fools, deceived, do not understand God or the Bible, and only lead people astray.

The Tribulation

So, what actually happens in the Tribulation that will affect those who remain. You could read the Book of the Revelation, the last book in the New Testament, and find out. For now, here is an overview:

- Lawlessness
- Wars
- Nuclear War
- Peace will be taken from the earth
- All the cities destroyed in an hour
- Fear
- Pain
- Murder
- Famine
- Hail
- Earthquakes
- A quarter of the earth’s inhabitants will be killed by hunger, by the sword, and the beasts of the earth.
- The kings, the rich, the captains, the great and mighty men, bondman and free will hide themselves in the rocks and caves in an attempt to hide from God.
- The wind will not blow over the earth, the sea, or any tree
- More, and bigger earth quakes
- Rev 8:7 hail and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast upon the earth: and the third part of trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.
- Rev 8:8 a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea: and the third part of the sea became blood;
- Rev 8:9 And the third part of the creatures which were in the sea, and had life, died; and the third part of the ships were destroyed.
- Rev 8:10 there fell a great star from heaven, burning as it were a lamp, and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upon the fountains of waters; 11 And the name of the star is called Wormwood: and the third part of the waters became wormwood; and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter. (Some tie this reference to nuclear radiation and poisoning).
- Rev 8:12 the third part of the sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars; so as the third part of them was darkened, and the day shone not for a third part of it, and the night likewise.
- Rev 9:1 a star fall from heaven unto the earth:
- the bottomless pit will be opened
- ...and there arose a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and

- the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit.
- And there came out of the smoke locusts upon the earth: and unto them was given power, as the scorpions of the earth have power. And it was commanded them that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree; but only those men which have not the seal of God in their foreheads.
- And to them it was given that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented five months: and their torment [was] as the torment of a scorpion, when he striketh a man.
- And in those days shall men seek death, and shall not find it; and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.
- And the shapes of the locusts [were] like unto horses prepared unto battle; and on their heads [were] as it were crowns like gold, and their faces [were] as the faces of men. 8 And they had hair as the hair of women, and their teeth were as [the teeth] of lions. 9 And they had breastplates, as it were breastplates of iron; and the sound of their wings [was] as the sound of chariots of many horses running to battle. 10 And they had tails like unto scorpions, and there were stings in their tails: and their power [was] to hurt men five months.
- Rev 9:15 And the four angels were loosed, which were prepared for an hour, and a day, and a month, and a year, for to slay the third part of men.

Two Choices, Two Destinies

These events will soon occur as the time of man on earth has come to an end.

The good news is that it isn't over, yet. Everyone still has an opportunity to choose a relationship with God, skip the Tribulation, and have an eternity with God in Heaven.

It is the final second of the final minute of the final hour and you have a choice. Throw off your pride, lusts, and self-centeredness and turn to God. Choose God and receive His Spirit. Ask God to show you the path and guide you into that relationship with Him that is eternal life. Receive the truth and be saved.

The alternative is the Tribulation and eternal damnation. Eternity is a long time. In fact, it will feel like forever.

The choice is yours.
