

Why the Christian Religion Failed

The Christian religion does not have God's blessing due to its misguided beliefs.

Many will find this subject difficult to hear as religion has blinded them to the truth their entire lives, just as it has their ancestors before them throughout the last 19 centuries. Nevertheless, stepping through history reveals a present-day Christian religion that does not agree with the Bible and does not have God's blessings.

This is not an in-depth study as that would require a much larger volume of work. Instead, it is a brief, yet complete overview, sufficient in detail to uncover the plight of the religion called Christian.

Fun Fact: The religion called Christian is nowhere found in the Bible. It is a man-made religion people created over the years, using words from the Bible, out of context, and/or made-up ideas, imaginations, superstitions, traditions, extra-biblical writings, and errant practices they choose to follow that have no Biblical support. Examples include Pentecostalism, Charismaticism, Mormonism, Catholicism, Lutheranism, Evangelicalism, Emergent-ism, and others under the Protestant umbrella.

The Body of Christ is not a religion, it is a relationship with God, and the indwelling Spirit.

The Big Picture

First, let's get a perspective on God's plan for mankind. This is the big picture of man on earth from which we can see the part Christianity in history.

There are a few equal time points that give structure to God's plan for mankind: a plan that encompasses 6000 years.

- Adam and Eve were at the beginning, 6000 years ago.
- Abraham lived 4000 years ago, 2000 years after Adam and Eve.
- Jesus lived 2000 years ago, 2000 years after Abraham.
- We are living today, 2000 years after Jesus. This period is called the Age of Grace.
- This is the 6000 years of God's plan, the totality of humanities time on earth before God ends the world in the Tribulation. Yes, time is up for planet earth.
- Jesus returns at the end of the 6000 years and reigns over the earth for 1000 years.

You knew it couldn't last forever.

See the article on this site "The End is Now" for the complete report PPGpilot.com

Let's pick it up from Abraham.

In the Beginning - of the Jews

The beginning of the Jewish race began 4000 years ago in 2000 BC with Abraham.

- Abraham lived 4000 years ago
- Abraham lived in 2000 BC
- Abraham lived 2000 years after Adam and Eve left the Garden of Eden
- Abraham lived 2000 years before Jesus.
- Abraham is the father of both the Jews and the Gentile Body of Christ:

- The Jews and the Gentiles are

- two completely separate peoples with
- two separate programs
- two separate destinies.

- Abraham is the father of both groups

- the Jews through the flesh and
- the Gentile Body of Christ through faith.

God chose Abraham to bless the world through his lineage, making a covenant with him and his posterity (the Jews) throughout all time.

This relationship of God with the Jews, and God's covenant promise to the Jews, is very important, and part of the downfall of the Christian religion as we will see.

Abraham

Abraham had a son: Isaac. This is the beginning of God's chosen people, the Jews. If you are a descendant of Abraham through Isaac, you are a Jew. Otherwise, you are a Gentile.

God chose the Jews to be His possession.

Deuteronomy 14:2 For thou [art] an holy people unto the LORD thy God, and the LORD hath chosen thee to be a peculiar people unto himself, above all the nations that [are] upon the earth.

- God chose the Jews to be His people
- God called Abraham to be the father of many nations, Jew and Gentile,
- God gave to Abraham and his posterity, the Jews, the actual, physical land of Canaan.
- God's gifts and calling of the Jews are irrevocable and His promises stand for all time.
- God never "un-chose" the Jews and never will.

Christianity doesn't agree with any of the above.

Romans 11:29 For the gifts and calling of God [are] without repentance.
(irrevocable)

God gave to Abraham and his descendants the land of Canaan and today, the nation of Israel resides on a small piece of this land. In the end, and very soon, Israel will possess all the land God promised Abraham.

Covenant Theology, or “Christianity”, believes this land is “symbolic”, an allegorical heavenly land, and the Jews have no right to the physical land of God’s promise to Abraham. This is the position Christianity calls anti-Zionism and Replacement Theology.

This is where the Christian religion ran off the road, hit the proverbial tree, and the wreck is still there. It is all about Christianities attitude toward the Jews.

Israel

Abraham’s son, Isaac, had a son, Jacob, and to Jacob (called Israel) was born 12 sons who became the 12 tribes of Israel. God repeated the covenant promise He made with Abraham to Isaac, Jacob, and Joseph, and 400 years later, to Moses.

Fun Fact: The Jews and Gentiles never mingled in their worship, do not worship together to this day, and never will. It is apparent throughout the Old Testament and the four Jewish Gospels that the Jews saw themselves superior to both the Gentiles and the Samaritans (half Jew half Gentile), and considered these two groups no better than “dogs”, calling them sinners and heathens.

Besides this attitude of the Jews toward the Gentiles, the night-and-day differences of the Jewish Mosaic law, “salvation by works”, and circumcision, compared with Paul’s Gospel of “saved by grace”, no law, and uncircumcision, made the two groups hopelessly incompatible. That’s how it has been for the last 2000 years and where things stand today.

The Pauline Church

Through the 2000 years between Abraham and Jesus, the Jews grew into a nation.

- The Jewish Old Testament provides the history of the Jewish people.
- The four Jewish Gospels provide the history of the Jewish people.
- The four Jewish Gospels are a continuation of the Old Testament: the conclusion of all that came before.
- The four Jewish Gospels bring closure to the 2000 years of the Jews that began with Abraham.
- The four Jewish Gospels bring closure to the 4000 years that began with Adam.

When Jesus said "It is finished",

- it was the end of all things past, including
 - the Jews (Scattered for the the entire 2000-year Age of Grace)
 - The Jewish Scriptures (Our Old Testament)
 - The four Jewish Gospels (they are a record of the past, like the Old Testament)
 - The Jewish Hebrew epistles were rendered obsolete, and like the Old Testament and the four Jewish Gospels, describe a past time.
 - The Gospel Jesus preached to the Jews was over
 - The Gospel Peter preached to the Jews was over
- It was the beginning of all things future.
 - a new 2000-year program began for the Gentiles
 - The Age of Grace
 - God's new message to man through the Apostle Paul
 - Paul's Gospel is God's message to man, superseding the other Gospels

The ascended Christ sent Paul into the world (Nations / Gentiles) with a new message never heard before: God's message to the world, the "Good News", the Gospel of salvation by Grace through faith.

This new message from God is Paul's Gospel, not the Jewish Gospel which was mentioned by Jesus in the four Jewish Gospels, and not Peter's Jewish Christian Gospel preached only to the Jews in the Book of Acts chapters 1-8. These Gospels were put away - retired, as something new and better had taken their place. Yet, today in the Christian religions, you will find both the Jewish Gospel of Jesus and Peter's Jewish Gospel mistakenly preached. They do not apply. These are different Gospels. Paul said if anyone preaches a different gospel, may they be accursed.

(See the article "This Gospel, That Gospel" on this site for more information on the various Gospels. PPGpilot.com)

The ascended Christ gave to the Apostle Paul the ministry of reconciliation to go to the Gentiles, and the word of reconciliation to preach to the Gentiles.

Paul's message was extremely simple

- Turn to God
- Receive Salvation
- Receive the Spirit indwelling
- Become a new Spiritual Creation

The Apostle Paul's 13 epistles contain this message God has for the Gentile world.

The four Jewish Gospels about the Jews and Jesus' ministry, and the Jewish Hebrew epistles, do not contain God's message to the Gentiles. They are Jewish references with no application to the Gentile world.

The Wrong Message

Yet, the four Jewish Gospels about the Jews, the Gospel Jesus, and the Jewish Hebrew epistles written by the Jews, to the Jews, for the Jews, about the Jews, and the Jewish law, and Jewish things and Jewish times, are the foundation of all things Christian religion, a religion that is far more Jewish-centric than anything Body of Christ. This is a big problem and the reason Christianity is not a biblical religion. Instead, it is a religion that uses words from the Bible to create the doctrines they chose to believe, but the words they use are out of context and do not align with Bible truth. The words are taken out of context because the Christian religion cannot understand the Bible. They cannot understand the Bible because they do not have the Spirit of God. They do not have the Spirit of God because they despise God's Chosen people, the Jews, and God's message, and God's messenger, Paul.

Fun Fact: The traditions and stories claiming that the Christian religion of today evolved from the Jewish Church of Acts 2 are just that: stories, and not biblical truth. In fact, there is no mention of the Gentile Christian religion of today in the Bible at all as it is a made-up religion, using words from the Bible, out of context, to create a belief system that has no biblical support.

A Religion Called Christian

Even during the Apostle Paul's ministry, other religions were already eroding Paul's Gospel message. Satanic forces were at work, pulling at Paul's church to drive it off course, to complicate the simple message God gave the Gentiles.

Acts 20:

28 Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood.

29 For I know this, that after my departing shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock.

30 Also of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them.

31 Therefore watch, and remember, that by the space of three years I ceased not to warn every one night and day with tears.

Paul dies and as he predicted, the churches he established began to dissolve from without and from within. In a short time, the Body of Christ morphed into something calling itself “Christian”, and diverged from the Pauline Gospel by adding other tenants to this new religion.

Fun Fact: The word Christian(s) appears in the Bible only three times and always and only referred to the Jews that believed Jesus was their Messiah. Neither the Gentiles nor the Body of Christ was ever called Christian.

Fun Fact: In the 30 year-plus ministries of Peter, Paul, James, John, and Jude, no one ever used the term Christian to describe themselves, their followers, or their Church. It was a slang and a disparaging term.

Fun Fact: The religion called Christian is not in the Bible, nor is it a biblical religion. It is a false religion like so many that use words from the Bible, out of context, to create the things they choose to believe and spend their lives following.

Fun Fact: The post Apostolic church chose the name “Christian” for their church like the Berean Church chose their name. These individuals are not really Bereans, it’s just a name. Maybe all the good ones were taken. Christianity is just a name. It is not the Body of Christ: Christ’s Church. It is not a valid expression of biblical truth.

Antisemitism

There were those in the first century who resented the Jews, despising them, accusing them of murdering the Son of God; branding them “Christ killers”, a label that would remain upon the Jews for the entire 2000-year Age of Grace.

In a very short time, Christianity became its own religion apart from the teachings of the Apostle Paul, and remains so to this day. From the beginning, even in the time of Paul, different Gospels were vying for preeminence over Paul’s Gospel. This divergence from Paul’s message continued and widened through the years as religions preferred to talk about, and focus on, the four Jewish Gospels about the Jews, the Gospel Jesus’ life and ministry, and the Jewish Hebrew epistles.

Galatians 1:

6 ¶ I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel:

7 Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.

8 But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.

9 As we said before, so say I now again, If any [man] preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed.

The “other Gospel” Paul spoke of was anything that was not Paul’s Gospel, God’s message to mankind, given to him by the ascended Christ. “Other Gospels” include the retired Jewish Gospel

Jesus spoke of in the four Jewish Gospels to the Jews as it was no longer valid and never applied to the Gentiles in the first place. It also includes Peter's Jewish Gospel he spoke to the Jews only, as it did not apply to the Gentiles and was superseded by Paul's Gospel. Christian religions today follow both the Gospels of Jesus and Peter that have nothing to do with the Body of Christ or Christianity.

The Post Apostolic Christian Religion

The Christian religion, post-Apostolic, was a homogenized mix of traditions, Humanism, Hedonism, astrology, philosophy, knowledge, science-so-called, pagan influences, and more. This religion looked nothing like the Pauline Gospel and the Body of Christ. In fact, Paul, Christ's minister to the Gentiles with God's message, was all but forgotten and remains so to this day, even hated vehemently in some circles of Christianity. The reason for Christianity abandoning Paul is simple: what Paul says in his 13 epistles, God's message to mankind in this Age of Grace, does not align with the made-up tenants, practices, traditions, and imaginings of the man-made religion called Christianity.

The Roman Pagan Christian Church

In the early fourth century, Constantine, in a political move, sought to bring peace to the nation by uniting the many religious factions of the day into one religion, then giving the various followers of their various religions incentives to "get along". He named this official Roman state church "Christian", after his mothers religion. There is no evidence that Constantine ever followed this religion during his life.

The Christianity of that day was not the Pauline Body of Christ, but a blend of many thoughts, ideas, beliefs, and religions. Here, there was a lot of give-and-take to make everyone happy, leading to Sunday worship, the days of the week named after planets, the goddess Mary to replace pagan goddesses, and more.

The Bible was not available to the people, and the priests who controlled the few copies that did exist hid the Scriptures - for 1200 years. Instead, the people had pretty church windows depicting scenes of Jesus, the disciples, Mary and the baby Jesus, and Paul, James, Peter, the Crucifixion, and others.

The Roman church approached the Bible as a TO-DO list, a recipe book on how to live life. This portrayed Christianity as what it really was: a fortune cookie religion on par with Judaism and the then-future religions of Buddha, Confucius, and Islam (all circa 600 AD). The various statements and councils and confessions attempted to formalize the religion of that day, but all lacked the Apostle Paul and the indwelling Spirit of God. This is the condition of the Christian religion today: stale and sterile.

This new Roman religion was always a religion without the Spirit of God and disconnected from the Word of God. Lacking these two essentials, the people muddled on for 1700 years, ignorant and lost. The religion that developed along the way was more of a corrupt government rule having nothing to do with the God of the Bible or His Word. Instead, this religion rested on made-up traditions and a false, self-proclaimed authority they imagined God giving them. (Other false religions have followed this same theme including Protestant Christian). There was nothing true in any of this,

yet, the false claims continue to this day in a religion of "traditions" that has nothing to do with the Bible.

Augustine

One hundred years after Constantine christened the Christian Church of Rome, in the early fifth century, 1500 years ago, Augustine, a Roman Bishop and the father of Roman Theology, gave the world Covenant religion. His brand of religion formalized ideas already in place, and he added his personal views of the Bible, his life lessons, philosophy, and parts and pieces from other religions to create his own unique view of God and man. This belief system had nothing to do with the Apostle Paul, Paul's Gospel, the Bible, or the indwelling Spirit. Instead, it was more about works and man's efforts to improve himself, and attain a higher plain of spirituality, very much like religion today. In a word, this is humanism. These thoughts and musings were not biblical and nothing of the sort was ever intended for the Body of Christ.

Scripture references Augustine took from the Bible were out of context showing a lack of God's leading Spirit. The Apostle Paul he was not. In essence, the church of that day, and today, lacks God, God's blessing, God's Spirit, and the people lack the indwelling Spirit of God, and salvation.

Augustine's Covenant Theology was not biblical to the point of being anti-biblical and anti-God, and certainly anti-Jew. Listed here is a sampling of the many tenants of this theology that remain intact in the modern religions of our time:

1. Christ's second coming already occurred in 70 AD.
2. The reign of Christ is currently in place and is ongoing
3. There is no millennial reign of Christ in the future
4. Millennial does meant 1000 years, but "a long time".
5. The idea of the millennial reign of Christ is "false and carnal", leading to Augustine's systematic doctrine of Amillennialism - No millennial reign of Christ.
6. The belief that Christ rules the earth today spiritually through his triumphant church = Christianity.
7. The concept of Purgatory
8. Mariology: that Mary was a perpetual virgin, "conceived of a virgin, gave birth as a virgin and stayed a virgin forever".
9. A metaphorical interpretation of the Bible instead of a literal understanding of the text.
10. A misunderstanding of the fall of man through symbolism
11. A skewed vision and understanding of creation, preferring to spiritualize the event
12. Infants are eternally damned at birth, leading to the false concept of infant baptism, and that infant baptism saves the soul of the child.
13. Taught that only through disdain for fleshly desire could one reach the ultimate state of mankind, leading to the false concept of celibacy as a higher form of spiritual life.
14. The Sacraments outside the Catholic church are worthless and ineffectual

15. Transubstantiation: the daily crucifixion of Christ and the elements are actually the body and blood of Christ that infuses grace.
16. Any attempt to prevent the creation of children in marriage made the marriage invalid and a cloak for turpitude. Such a marriage is not wedlock but debauchery.
17. The entire Bible is written to and applies to the Christian Church
18. And the grand-daddy of them all: Replacement Theology: God is through with the Jews, the Christian Church has all the blessings of God, the Christian Church is Israel. and other preposterous musings.

And many more.

Protestantism

The Printing Press appeared in the mid 15th century and began printing Bibles faster that the perverse religion could find and destroy them. By the 16th century, Bibles were in circulation and the citizenry was mostly literate. People began to question the apostate Roman pagan Christian religion and finally revolted against that illegitimate, corrupt, government religion.

Leaving their former religion didn't mean they were smart, and it didn't make them smarter. They simply ran from a stinking corpse that was the religion of that day. Out on their own, all these orphans knew was a lifetime of stain glass windows, made-up traditions, and Augustine's false teachings on everything.

When the protesters left the Roman Church, moving away from the non-biblical traditions to the words of the Bible, they took with them the godless theology that made their former faith what it was. Then, without the Spirit of God, they could only approach the words in the Bible mechanically as religion did over the centuries with various edicts, creeds, and councils. They had "Sola This, and Sola That", but did not have the Spirit indwelling to open their eyes to the truth. They remained people of a false religion, alienated from God, following words on a page without spiritual guidance. This left the Protestants mired in Jewish anthology from the Jewish Old Testament, the Jewish Hebrew epistles, and the four Jewish Gospels, including the Gospel Jesus that had nothing to do with the Gentiles. These "Protestant Christians" pursued a form of godliness in many empty religions, all void of the truth, using the Bible as a list of "things to do" and "how to live". Following this path, nothing changed. In the last 500 years, this blind religion never found the Apostle Paul's Gospel or the mystery that was hidden in God from the foundation of the world, so, they never did find their way to the truth in God's message to man.

Covenant Religion

The nightmare the Roman Church tried to avoid all those many centuries by hiding, burning, and outlawing Bibles, murdering men who sought to translate and print Bibles, finally came to fruition. Under the spell of Covenant Theology, and without the Spirit of God to guide them, everyone who read the little bits and pieces of the Bible they could find came up with their own interpretation and ideas of what they thought the Bible might mean. They picked out their favorite verse and started their very-own religion, complete with laws, doctrines, a complicated system of self-denial, sufferings, and self-debasement to prove to themselves, to others, and yes, to God, that they possessed some higher level of commitment and spirituality. These things of false religion are inherent in humanities fallen nature: self-effort to self-improvement always results in self-deception and failure.

While these “Christians” had a zeal for God, it was not according to right reason, and contrary to the Bible. The further a group strays from biblical truth, the more bazaar and extreme their self-imposed sufferings become. Can you say Anabaptists, Amish, Hutterites, Quakers, Snake Handlers, Pentecostals, Charismatics, Evangelicals, Holiness movement, Emergent-ism, and hundreds more, leading to the warped, fragmented religious systems that persist to this day, each and every one void of truth.

See the article on this website entitled “A Discussion on Protestant-ism” and others for more information) PPGpilot.com

Consider In the four Jewish Gospels, during His three-year ministry, Jesus went to the Jew only, deliberately omitting the Gentiles and calling them “dogs”, His words. Neither Jesus nor His disciples ministered to, or interacted with the Gentiles, avoiding them entirely, and referring to both the Gentiles and Samaritans as heathens, and sinners.

Post-ascension, Jesus commissioned the Apostle Paul to minister to the Gentiles with a new message that Christ never spoke to His disciples; information the world had never heard, information that God chose for the Gentiles to receive from the mouth of the Apostle Paul, information that had nothing to do with the Jewish Old Testament or the four Jewish Gospels.

That the Christian religion of today believes that Jesus, 2000 years ago, spoke specifically to them, a misguided, biblically ignorant group of Gentiles, without God or the Spirit of God, despising the Jews, preaching a false gospel, a false Spirit, and a phony Jesus, ignoring Christ’s messenger to the Gentiles, the Apostle Paul - and they thinking Jesus commanded them into the mission field to convert the world to their brand of made-up religion is beyond absurd.

Replacement Theology

Do you want to know Why the Christian Religion Failed?

No doubt the most egregious sin of Christianity, and there are many contenders for that title, both Roman and Protestant, is their attitude toward the Jews: their assertion that God has forgotten the Jews and the Jews no longer have the blessings God promised Abraham and all his generations forever. This is called Replacement Theology.

In their ignorance and arrogance, and with no understanding of the Bible at all, these false religions unilaterally decided that God has forever rejected the Jews and has no further dealings with them. They believe the Christian Church “replaced” the Jews, and now, Christianity is God’s favored son, having all the blessings and promises God made to the Jews, while the Jews retain all the curses. They proclaim the Jews are not entitled to the land God gave them, instead saying it was symbolic of a “heavenly land”, and then make the absurd claim that the Christian religion is the true Israel.

Only those who have never read the Bible, or are biblically illiterate and ignorant, spiritually blind, demonically deceived, or just plain crazy could ever make up such outlandish claims. Then again, these are exactly the characteristics we see today in the variety of Christian religions and its followers who do not have God.

These false teachings of Replacement Theology and anti-Zionism makes it necessary for the church of today to minimize and ignore God’s message He sent into the world through the Apostle Paul as Paul’s writings promote the Jews and disagree with the Christian mantra. Christianity cannot spin their way out of what God says. The New Testament book of Romans, the most theologically dense of Paul’s 13 epistles and the other New Testament writings, makes it clear beyond question that the Jews are very much a part of God’s future plans. The Old Testament says the same.

Here is a problem: when you omit Paul and his letters that contain the Word of God to the Nations, as the Christian religion has for most of 2000 years, you lose the message Christ gave Paul to preach to the Gentiles. When you replace Paul with the four Jewish Gospels about the Jews, and the life and ministry of Jesus, and the obsolete Jewish Hebrew epistles about the Jews and the Jewish religion, you focus on the past - a part of the Bible no longer active, a part of the Bible that has nothing to do with the Gentiles. In the process, you forsake the part of the Bible that is specifically for the Gentiles: Paul’s epistles.

When a religion has the wrong foundation, doctrine goes awry and the teachings of the religion do not hold together or make sense. That is Christianity today. It is a religion adrift, without the Spirit of God. It is a religion about God and not a relationship with God. The relationship with God stands alone and is complete in and of itself - religion is neither required nor is it desired. That is why, in part, the Christian religion failed 2000 years ago, and why it is a failed religion today, bereft of the truth, the Spirit, and God.

Fun Fact: If the Apostle Paul were with us today, he would warn the Body of Christ to have nothing to do with the Christian religion and their false Jesus, false Spirit, false gospels, and false gods. And if history tells us anything, he would also include an anathema or two.

Replacement Theology, while not the only reason for the failure of Christianity, stands far and above any other reason: it is their attitude toward the Jews. It would be impossible for this wayward religion to have God's blessing, and it never has, and according to the Bible, it never will.

The Downfall of the Christian Religion

God is not happy with the Christian religion of the past or present.

After Paul's death, Christ's Church quickly drifted into false religion and away from the Pauline Body of Christ, setting the course of the church for the next 2000 years.

- Men of the Christian religion, for 2000 years, wrote false, hateful rhetoric about the Jews. This religion assumed God was through with Israel and had wiped His hands of the Jews, never to deal with them again.
 - That position cannot possibly please God as He provided the Bible and the Spirit, detailing multiple times throughout His Word His love and dedication to His chosen people, the children of Abraham.
 - The Bible details the promises of God to the Jews that He will fulfill, and when He will fulfill them.
 - Choosing to not believe the Bible as written, but instead, believing whatever they choose to make up, Christianity is without excuse in this error.
 - This was the major blunder of the Christian religion.
- Christians self-christened themselves the true Israel, replacing the Jews, and assuming for themselves all the blessings God gave to the Jews.
 - There is no truth in this at all.
 - This is simply ignorance and arrogance, a slap on the face of God.
 - God gives blessings. The Christian religion can't just take blessings from God, or pretend God gave them blessing He did not give. That is not the way it works.
 - Believing the things they believe, it would be impossible for the Christian religion to please God.
 - The second major error.

- The Christian Religion also assumed God wrote all the Bible to the Christian Church, and all the New Testament books are about them and contain doctrines that apply to them.
 - This is very much the Protestants being just as ignorant as was the Roman pagan Christian Church with their fictitious traditions, superstitions, and phony mystical beliefs.
 - Protestantism and Catholicism are two peas in a pod when it comes to making things up. They are, after all, cousins, cut from the same theological cloth that is Augustinian Theology.
 - Assuming all the Bible speaks to their religion gives the Christians a warped view of the Bible, hiding the truth from them. It places the emphasis on obsolete Jewish doctrines that no longer apply to anyone.
 - God makes a plain distinction between the Jews and the Gentiles throughout the Old and New Testament writings. Following the wrong doctrines gives the wrong results and that is the crux of the problem with the Christian religion over the last 2000 years.
 - Major error number three.
- The Christian Religion creates and worships a false Jesus not found anywhere in the Bible.
 - The Jewish Old Testament, the four Jewish Gospels about the Jews, and the Jewish Hebrew epistles are history books about times past. They are not active in this Age of Grace and say nothing to the Gentiles.
 - Religion takes the name Jesus and makes up attributes about the Savior that are not applicable, creating a humanistic Jesus, a model for their followers to emulate and worship.
 - The phony Jesus is a Satanic ploy to turn worship to a false “Jesus” deity and away from God.
 - It is not acceptable to create a false god from a character found in the Bible. Deciding to make a religion based on Moses, Abraham, or Noah for instance. Creating a religion from the Spirit, claiming miracles, tongues, signs and wonders, is a false religion. Creating a false Jesus is no different.
 - Major error number four.
- Christianity ignores the Apostle Paul that God sent with His message to the Nations. God’s message, Paul’s epistles, do not support the made-up Christian agenda, self-appointed missions, or non-biblical imaginations.
 - God sent the Apostle Paul to the Gentiles with the message He wanted the Gentiles to hear. It replaced all the writings that came before including the four Jewish Gospels and the Jewish Hebrew epistles.

- The Church ignores Paul because what Paul says contradicts the Church's talking points and what they choose to believe from the four Jewish Gospels and the Jewish Hebrew epistles that have nothing to do with the Gentiles.
- The Christian religion, ignoring God, the Bible, and Paul, and vilifying the Jews, God's favored sons and chosen people, is in no position to secure blessings from God and they never have.
- Flub five
- Christian religion maintains a foundation of the four Jewish Gospels and the life and ministry of Jesus. The Gospels have nothing to do with the Gentiles, but they can't use Paul's epistles. Paul never referenced the four Jewish Gospels in his ministry to the Gentiles and never mentioned the phony Jesus that religions today promote.
 - That the Church denies so much of the Bible,
 - does not have the Bible,
 - cannot teach the Bible, and
 - does not have God's Spirit,
 - really, It is amazing God hasn't wiped these lost religions off the map long ago. Oh wait, that's about to happen in the greatest "Wheat and the Tares" episode known to man
 - AND, ever hear the one "I never knew you....?"
 - Mistake number six

Fun Fact: Notice that the Mormon and Catholic Churches are alive and well in this day-and-age despite their total ignorance of all things God and Bible. Hinduism and Islam also thrive as does the Anglican Church, Orthodoxy, Mormonism, Buddhism, and Confucianism. So too, the cults and the occults. There are numerous other religions that fit this mold including the various expressions of Protestantism. God allows these false religions to continue as the wheat and the tares. Very soon, the harvest (rapture) will remove the wheat and what's left will be burned.

Very soon, the removal of the Body of Christ from the earth will separate God's children from the lost and the religious, who follow a form of godliness, but deny the power thereof.

The Church Fathers

Israel is the apple of God's eye: What do you think God will do to those who vilify and mistreat His people? For starters, He blinds them to the truth as he has blinded Christianity all their years.

The Jews are blind, but now, too, the Gentiles. In their blindness, the post-Pauline religion, calling itself Christian, wandered further away from the truth that was Paul's "Simplicity of Christ", his Gospel of salvation by grace through faith, and the Mystery: Christ in you. Without God's Spirit, men could not understand the Word of God and lost direction. They have not regained their site to this

Tertullian 155-230 AD

Blamed the Jews for the death of Jesus and argued they had been rejected by God

Origen of Alexandria 185-253 AD

Asserted that the Jews were responsible for killing Jesus.

Eusebius 275-339 AD

Taught the promises of Scripture were meant for the Gentiles and the curses were for the Jews

Asserted that the church was the true Israel

Council of Elvira Spain 305 AD

Prohibited Christians from sharing a meal with a Jew, marrying a Jew, blessing a Jew, or observing the Sabbath

Council of Nicea 325 AD

Changed the celebration of the resurrection from the Jewish feast of First Fruits to Easter in an attempt to disassociate it from the Jewish feasts

John Chrysostom 349-407 AD

“The Synagogue is not only a brothel and a theater; it is also a den of robbers and a lodging place for wild beasts...”

Jews are inveterate murders possessed by the Devil. Their debauchery and drunkenness gives them the manners of a pig”

- Denied Jews could ever receive forgiveness
- Claimed it was a Christian duty to hate Jews
- Claimed that Jews worshiped Satan

This man was canonized a Saint by the Roman Church

Jerome 347-420 AD

- Described the Jews as serpents wearing the image of Judas
- Their psalms and prayer are the braying of donkeys
- They are incapable of understanding Scripture

Augustine 354-430 AD

Asserted that Jews deserved death but were destined to wander the earth to witness the victory of the church over the synagogue.

- Canonized a Saint: That's like winning an Emmy for hating the Jews
- Created the foundation of Covenant Theology
- Father of the Roman Church
- The Father of Modern-Day Religion

The Middle Ages

At the beginning of the Middle Ages, two erroneous concepts had become established as church doctrine

- The Jews should be considered “Christ Killers” and mistreated accordingly
- The Church has replaced Israel and God has no further purpose or the Jews

Reinforced

- Crusades of the 11th, 12th, 13th centuries
- Inquisitions of the 15th and 16th centuries “confess Christ or you are dead”
- Passion Plays – fervently antisemitic
- Position of the Church was to teach people to hate the Jews
- Blood Libels – accused Jews of killing Gentiles and using their blood in the Passover feast

The Reformation and Martin Luther

Jewish hatred intensified with the writings of Martin Luther who called the Jews

- A miserable and accursed people
- Stupid fools
- Miserable, blind, and senseless
- Thieves and robbers
- The Great vermin of humanity
- Lazy Rogues
- Blind and venomous

In 1543, Martin Luther penned a pamphlet “On the Jews and their Lies” with the following

- The synagogues and schools should be burned
- Their houses be destroyed
- Their Talmudic writings be confiscated
- Their Rabbis be forbidden to teach
- Their money be taken from them
- They be compelled into forced labor

During WWII, Hitler used Luther’s pamphlet as a road map for his attempted annihilation of the Jewish race as he killed 6 million Jews in the holocaust.

At the Nuremberg War Trials, the accused said they did nothing that Luther did not write.

The Church Today

The Church today, among other things

- Supports a repackaged form of Antisemitism called Anti-Zionism.
- Anti-Zionism seeks to refuse the Jews the right to live on the land that God gave them
- Believes the Jews have no place in God’s plans

- Jews are not entitled to their land
- Jews have been replaced by the Christian Church

Evangelicalism, Reformed Theology, Covenant Theology

Open letter to Evangelicals,

James Kennedy,
Knox Theological Seminary
2002

- A reformed theologian
- A Covenant theologian
- Open letter to Evangelicals concerning Israel
- Endorsed by hundreds of theologians and pastors

In his writing, Kennedy, a false teacher speaking in ignorance, wrote the following.

- “The promises of the Abrahamic Covenant do not apply to any particular ethnic group, but to the Church of Jesus Christ, the true Israel.”
- “The entitlement of any one religious or ethnic group to territory in the Middle East, called the Holy Land, cannot be supported by Scripture. In fact, the land promises specific to Israel in the Old Testament were fulfilled under Joshua.”
- “The present secular state of Israel... is not authentic or prophetic realization of the Messianic kingdom of Jesus Christ, Furthermore, a day should not be anticipated in which Christ’s kingdom will manifest Jewish distinctives, whether by its location in ‘the land’ or by its ceremonial institutions or practices.”

In the Bible, God Himself refutes all the above sentiments, calling these theologians and “great thinkers” LIARS.

Consider God’s attitude towards those who curse His people.

Genesis 12:3 And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee: and in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed.

Genesis 27:29 - Let people serve thee, and nations bow down to thee: be lord over thy brethren, and let thy mother's sons bow down to thee: cursed be every one that curseth thee, and blessed be he that blesseth thee.

Numbers 24:9 - He couched, he lay down as a lion, and as a great lion: who shall stir him up? Blessed is he that blesseth thee, and cursed is he that curseth thee.

Deuteronomy 30:7 - And the LORD thy God will put all these curses upon thine enemies, and on them that hate thee, which persecuted thee.

Exodus 23:22 - But if thou shalt indeed obey his voice, and do all that I speak; then I will be an enemy unto thine enemies, and an adversary unto thine adversaries.

Zechariah 2:8 - For thus saith the LORD of hosts; After the glory hath he sent me unto the nations which spoiled you: for he that toucheth you toucheth the apple of his eye.

Seriously,

How can a religion that vilifies the Jews prevail before God?

How can a religion bereft of truth please God?

How can a religion that does not have the Spirit of God find any form of guidance from God?

How can a religion of such people hope to have the protection or the blessing or salvation from God?

It can't. It won't. It didn't. It doesn't.

Conclusion

Just because a religion waves a King James Bible around doesn't mean that it knows anything, has the Almighty God or His Spirit, or is faithful and true. Proclaiming false doctrines and a false Jesus, God will no more bless these corrupt, perverse religions than He would the atheists, satanists, Mormons, Jehovah's Witnesses, Charismatics, Islam, The Church of Scientology, and all the rest.

For most of 2000 years, the Christian religion, its Churches and its people, have wallowed in failure up to and including the present-day.

This does not mean the Body of Christ does not exist. Indeed, it does in those who have the Spirit of God. It does not mean people cannot find God and receive His indwelling Spirit. Indeed, they can and do simply by turning to God.

That anyone can find God in this dark, apostate age of no Bible is no thanks to a false Christian religion that has systematically replaced God with a deity of their own making, and hidden the Bible for centuries by their faulty interpretations. Still, anyone can find a relationship with God in the simplicity of Paul's Gospel, God's message to mankind, that shines through even in the darkest places of man-made religions.

Sadly, those who belong to God in these spiritually bankrupt religions are often spiritually weak and anemic, not knowing the truth of the Bible, sincerely, but blindly following a misguided religious system that has nothing to do with God.

Jesus Speaks

Jesus speaks to the corrupt tree called Christianity of the past 2000 years, and its plethora of false churches scattered throughout the world today, “who doeth not the will of His Father”:

Matthew 7:22 A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither [can] a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them. ¶ Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works?

7:23 And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.
