

The History of Christian Religion

What you believe today about God and the Bible is the result of past religion going back two thousand years. It is almost certain you believe some form of Covenant Theology - and don't even know it, as most religions have their roots in covenant religion. Covenant Theology is not a valid expression of biblical truth and as a result, denominational religious teachings can vary widely from fact to fantasy to absurdity.

From the very beginning: even during the time of the Apostle Paul, satanic forces worked against Christ's Church. In a short time, Paul was forgotten and a religion calling itself "Christian" began, following the the culture of that day. It was not the Body of Christ, but a religion of many thoughts and ideas. During the ensuing 2000 years, religion never found biblical truth. Understanding the history of Christianity provides a perspective for knowing what is true about the Bible, and what is false about modern-day religion and why.

First Century

Jesus

In 04 BC, Jesus arrives on the earth. He is the fulfillment of Old Testament prophecies that foretold His life and ministry.

- Jesus came unto his own (The Jews), and his own received him not. Because the Jews did not accept their Messiah, they suffered a partial hardening (or blindness to the truth of God). This blindness would last the entire 2000 years of the Age of Grace, the final 2000 years of mankind.
- The Jews and their writings were rendered obsolete, superseded by God's new program through the Apostle Paul.
- Jesus came to the Jews, not to the Gentiles.
- Jesus came to fulfill the Jewish law, not to create a Gentile law, or unite the Gentiles with the Jews, or have the Gentiles follow the Jewish laws, or call the Gentiles to follow Him.
- Jesus came to fulfill Jewish prophesy and save humanity from their sins: Jew and Greek, male and female, slave and free, past, present, and future.
- Jesus' mission to save mankind was unknown to Satan. Unlike God, Satan is a created being and not omniscient. If Satan had known God's plan, that Jesus' death, resurrection, and ascension would usher in mankind's salvation, he would never have permitted Christ's substitutionary death on our behalf.

- On the cross, when Jesus said “It is Finished”, this was the end of everything that came before. The four Jewish Gospels were finished, the completion of the Old Testament, bringing closure to all that preceded, being the final act in the story of God and man to salvation. It was the end of the Jews as God soon scattered them across the globe for the entire 2000-year Age of Grace. Everything Jewish was put away, the Jewish-centric writings: The Old Testament, The four Jewish Gospels, the Gospel Jesus, and the Jewish Hebrew epistles, all relegated to history for our reference. The world turned the page to a new day and the beginning of the 2000-year Age of Grace. God sent His message into the world through the Apostle Paul; a new message of salvation by God’s grace and our faith, and the ascended Christ through whom we have everything and owe everything. Paul’s Christ can be defined in two words: “Because Of”.

Fun Fact: There were 14 generations from Abraham to David, 14 generations from David to the Babylonian captivity, 14 generations from the Babylonian captivity to Christ.

( $14 \times 3 = 42 \div 7 = 6$ , the number of man)

Fun Fact: The generations of man from Adam to today are ~130. From Adam to Christ are ~65 generations, and from Christ to today are ~65 generations, Christ being the center of mankind looking forward and back.

Fun Fact: Christ’s ministry fell between the 2000 years of the Jews under the law and the 2000-year Gentile Age of Grace. Christ stands at the center between the two peoples: the Jews and the Gentiles.

Fun Fact: The Jews and Gentiles never co-worshiped, but remained two separate entities as they are to this day. Neither the Body of Christ nor the present-day Christian religion evolved from Judaism or the Acts 2 Jewish Church.

Fun Fact: The Jews and Gentiles are two distinctly different peoples, with two distinctly different programs and two distinctly different destinations. The Jews for the earth and the Gentiles for Heaven. Nowhere in the Bible is it said the Jews have a place in Heaven, only on the earth.

The Four Jewish Gospels About the Jews

The four Jewish Gospel accounts written by Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John, record the three-year ministry of Jesus, who came to earth to take our place in God’s judgment, and to suffer and die for our sin nature and thereby reconcile all mankind to God.

- The four Jewish Gospels are the continuation of the Old Testament, the fulfillment of the Old Testament, the final act and close of the Old Testament.
- The four Jewish Gospels, like the Old Testament, are a part of Jewish anthology in their faithfully reporting the happenings of a past time.

- In The Four Jewish Gospels, Jesus came to His own, the Jews, who rejected Him
- The Four Jewish Gospels contain the history about Jesus' life and ministry.
- The Four Jewish Gospels take place midst the backdrop of the Jewish people, the Jewish religion, the Jewish culture, under the Jewish law.
- The Four Jewish Gospels fulfill the words of the prophets who foretold the future Christ.
- The Four Jewish Gospels are Jewish books about the Jews and Jewish things and Jewish times, and say nothing to the Gentiles.
- The Four Jewish Gospels, like the Old Testament Scriptures, are a descriptive narrative of a time past: it's what happened.
- The Four Jewish Gospels are not prescriptive for all the world then, now, or going forward: they do not tell us what to do.
- The four Jewish Gospels do not actively direct the Gentiles in this Age of Grace, and do not support the imaginings of the religion called Christian.
- The Four Jewish Gospels have no connection to the Gentiles in that time, or the time of the Apostle Paul, or times since the Apostle Paul, including our time today.
- The Four Jewish Gospels have nothing to do with the Pauline Gentile Body of Christ, containing no laws or doctrines for Christ's Church.
- The Body of Christ and Christ's Church are one and the same. This is not the 4th century religion called Christian, the Roman Pagan Christian Church of the last 1700 years, or the many varieties of Christianity seen today.
- Paul did not teach or preach the four Jewish Gospels or the Gospel Jesus to the Body of Christ.
- Guidance for the Gentiles in the Age of Grace is provided by God through the Apostle Paul and his epistles.

The Book of the Acts of the Apostles

When it comes to first century history of the Apostles, the book The Acts of the Apostles (aka, Acts) is the go-to reference.

In the first chapter, Jesus ascends into Heaven.

The Jewish Church

In the second chapter of Acts, the Jews experience the operation of the Spirit of God called a spiritual filling, and thus began the Jewish "Christian" church. There were no Gentile Pauline believers associated with this Jewish Church as they did not yet exist.

Fun Fact: The miracles, signs, and wonders, tongues, and healings active during the time of Jesus in the four Jewish Gospels, and during the time of the Apostles covered in the book of Acts, were all replaced with the greater miracle of the indwelling Spirit of God.

Fun Fact: The spiritual filling is the Spirit of God working temporarily through men, while the spiritual indwelling is the permanent residence of the Spirit of God in believers (aka the members of the Body of Christ.) A believer with the indwelling Spirit of God is adopted into the family of God, but cannot heal the sick, raise the dead, etc. That would require the spiritual filling as the Spirit of God worked through the believer.

- The initial operation of the Spirit through the speaking of other languages was a spiritual filling for a sign to validate and authenticate this new Jewish Church and its leaders.
- Tongues was not the indwelling Spirit, but the “filling” or “The Spirit working temporarily through man”.
  - ❑ The four Jewish Gospels, Acts, and the Old Testament records individuals filled with the Spirit as do the Pauline epistles.
  - ❑ Filled with the Spirit for a specific operation is not the permanent indwelling of the Spirit that resides in a person who chooses God, resulting in a new life in a new spiritual creation. (This is Paul’s territory, not the Jews, so, not the four Jewish Gospels, not Peter, James, Jude, or John.)
  - ❑ The Indwelling Spirit was the mystery hid in God from the foundation of the world.
  - ❑ Throughout the time of the Old Testament, and the four Jewish Gospels, and the first eight chapters of Acts, no one on earth knew about, or possessed the indwelling Spirit.
  - ❑ The Jewish Hebrew epistles do not contain any mention of the permanent indwelling Spirit of God.
  - ❑ The “Mystery” of “Christ in you” was that mystery given to Paul by the ascended Christ at a later time in the Acts record that he, Paul, should take it to the Gentiles.
  - ❑ This Mystery was hid in God since the beginning of the world until given to the Apostle Paul to take to the nations.

The Acts 2 church

The Acts 2 Church was Jewish and had nothing to do with the Gentiles:

- It was exclusively a Jewish church
- There were no Gentile Body of Christ believers included
- The Gentiles and Jews never mixed: Old or New Testaments, then or now
- At the time of Acts 2, there was no Body of Christ as the Apostle Paul, the minister to the Gentiles, did not yet exist.
- The matter of law and circumcision divided the Jews and Gentiles then, and they remain divided to this day.
- These Jewish believers were labeled “Christians” by the culture of the day. This was a pejorative term and not one of endearment
- Any Gentiles associated with the Jews through time were converts to Judaism, not members of the Pauline Body of Christ.

Fun Fact: The word Christian(s) appears in the Bible only three times and always and only referred to the Jews that believed Jesus was their Messiah. Neither the Gentiles nor the Body of Christ was ever called Christian.

Fun Fact: In their 30-year plus ministries, neither Peter, Paul, James, Jude, nor John ever used the term Christian to describe themselves, their followers, or their church.

Fun Fact: The present day “Christian” religion is nowhere found in the Bible.

Fun Fact: It was foretold of the Jews in the Old Testament that they would evangelize the world. Unfortunately, when they killed Jesus, then Steven (Acts 7) (As the Jews had killed off the prophets before them), God hardened the Jews for the entire 2000-year Age of Grace period that began with Christ’s ascension, then scattered the Jews throughout the world. It was here God went to the Gentiles. The Jewish spiritual blindness will continue until the end of the coming Tribulation.

Fun Fact: In the future, during the Millennial reign of Christ, the Jews will be the purveyors of all spiritual truth to the world, and will evangelize the nations according to Matthew 29:18. While the Jews today are the least of peoples, during the millennium, they will be the most sought-after group, bringing blessings to the world, and fulfilling a number of Old and New Testament Scripture promises.

Saul (Paul)

Not everyone liked this new Jewish Christian Church based on Jesus as the Messiah. The Romans didn't like it because they believed this sect was introducing a new "god" to compete with Cesar. The Jews didn't like it at all because they had been the instigators in the crucifixion of Jesus and wanted the whole thing to just go away. They also did not believe or accept Jesus as their Messiah. (this theme is a large part of Paul's epistle to the Romans.)

In Acts 7, Steven reasons with the Jews in the synagogue about Jesus to the point they took him out and stoned him to death. (This is where God hardens the Jews and turns to the Gentiles).

Standing by, observing the stoning of Steven, was Saul of Tarsus, a Hebrew zealot and Pharisee who would soon become the Apostle Paul. But first, Saul would severely persecute this new Jewish Messianic Christian sect to the point they would disperse into other cities, hiding from Saul's wrath and persecution.

Fun Fact: As the Jews dispersed throughout the land as a result of Saul's persecution, they proclaimed Jesus to the Jews Only. To this point, the Gentiles are in the dark, spiritually speaking, knowing nothing and not included in anything.

Acts_11:19 Now they which were scattered abroad upon the persecution that arose about Stephen travelled as far as Phenice, and Cyprus, and Antioch, preaching the word to none but unto the Jews only.

The Apostle Paul (Saul)

By this time, Acts 2 is a memory, Steven is martyred, Saul is persecuting the Jewish Christians for their belief in Jesus as the Promised Messiah. In his private war against the Jews, while en-route to Damascus, Saul has an encounter with the ascended Christ. This is recorded in Acts chapter 9 and becomes the turning point in the book. Here, God enlists Paul into the ministry of the Gentiles. God delivers a new message to the world through the Apostle Paul. In time, Paul's mission begets the Gentile Body of Christ. This is not the beginning of Gentile Christianity. Christian in the Bible was always and only a Jewish label. The Christian religion of post Apostolic times was not / is not the Pauline Body of Christ.

The rest of Acts follows Paul's ministry to the Gentiles with a few mentions of Peter. In these references to Peter, it is clear that Paul and Peter had two very different mind-sets, understandings, ministries, and followers: Peter would go to the Jews (the circumcision) while Paul's focus was on the Gentiles.

Galatians 2:7 But contrariwise, when they saw that the gospel of the uncircumcision was committed unto me (Paul), as the gospel of the circumcision was unto Peter;

2:8 (For he that wrought effectually in Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision, the same was mighty in me (Paul) toward the Gentiles:)

2:9 And when James, Cephas, and John, who seemed to be pillars, perceived the grace that was given unto me (Paul), they gave to me (Paul) and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship; that we should go unto the heathen (you and me), and they (Peter and the other Jews) unto the circumcision.

Fun Fact: Peter never wrote to, or ministered to the Gentiles, and was never the Pope of a Christian Gentile Church. The Idea that Peter was the first Pope of the Roman Church didn't appear until 606 AD, centuries after Peters death.

Boniface III first took up the mantle of “universal head-ship” of the Roman Pagan Church and proclaimed Papal “infallibility”, then created a back-story and a fake legacy that included non-existent Popes that included Peter.

The concept that Peter was the first Pope of the Roman Christian Church is one of many “traditions” this religion invents . Translation: they just made it up just as they made up all their other traditions, and everything else they believe that has no biblical or historical support.

Back in the dark ages, when people were illiterate and the Church / government held all power, and withheld the Bible from the people, outlawed the Bible, burned Bibles, it was easy to just say stuff. Today, not so much.

At the end of Acts, just before his death, Paul passed the mantel of his ministry to Timothy. After Paul's death, the Pauline church quickly fizzled. Paul knew this would happen.

Acts 20:28 Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood.

29 For I know this, that after my departing shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock.

30 Also of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them.

31 Therefore watch, and remember, that by the space of three years I ceased not to warn every one night and day with tears.

Christ's Church, The Body of Christ

Imagine how Satan must have felt when he first realized God's plan to save humanity through Christ's death. To that point, Satan had the home court advantage and everything was going so well for him. Then, in a moment, believers, those with the Spirit of God, enlightened and led by God's indwelling Spirit , were no longer as vulnerable to his schemes.

While the Devil does not know what we think, he knows how fallen man thinks. The Spirit residing in man changed that dynamic. While Satan cannot physically touch us, he can tempt us to our own destruction. Putting the Spirit of God into the mix, Satan, for the first time, was at a disadvantage.

Christian Religion - the Early Years

As the centuries rolled on, Satan perpetrated many varied attacks on humanity. Those individuals without the Spirit of God indwelling were easy prey as they, with just a little opportunity and temptation, yielded to their baser passions, pleasures, and lusts, giving in fully to their fallen nature to their ruin.

The believers in the Body of Christ - defined as those who belonged to God and had His Spirit, proved to be problematic. To counter their faith, Satan first employed multiplicity: many different false religions to create confusion. These included philosophy, knowledge, science-so-called, mysticism, humanism, paganism, and others, all ideas that appealed to the mind of fallen man. With these religions, people had options to easily keep them occupied and away from God and the truth of God. (This continues today and is the reason for all the varieties of Christianity and all the other religions of the world.)

Still, many hung tightly to the truth of God. Satan countered this resistance by attacking them through men in their false religions with persecution, oppression, then torture; even the death of those who continued to follow God. To Satan's frustration, the children of God, led by the Spirit, endured with grace the vicious and malicious attacks of the Devil against them.

Meanwhile, Satan, working through men, promoted a fully corrupt religion with excesses of every kind. Through Covenant religion, he confused the word of God, then withheld God's word from the faithful, then confiscated and burned Bibles, persecuting anyone who might obtain a Bible; then made it illegal to possess or even read the word of God. Anyone who attempted to translate the Bible into a readable language, or print the Bible, were persecuted, prosecuted, and/or killed.

The perverse church set itself up as the gatekeeper of all things God, locking the people out of God's truth. Then they joined with the government to take full control of the people. Truly, Satan in his finest hour. (This scene will play out again very soon as most of humanity endures the Tribulation of the last days, and the tyranny of the satanic duo: the Antichrist and his false prophet [likely the Roman Pope of that time].)

For twelve-hundred years, the Bible existed in Latin only. Each Latin Bible painstakingly copied by hand and distributed to the priests who hid them from the people. During these dark ages, the people did not have the word of God. There were no copies for them to read, and the vast majority of people could not read anyway. They were completely at the mercy of their leaders and that is exactly where the church / government wanted them. The people had no option but believe whatever they were told.

In due time - God's time - and right on time, beginning in the 14th century, men, under great persecution from the corrupt church, began to translate the Word of God into their own language. These individuals suffered torture and murder at the hands of the satanic Christian regime. A century later, in 1440 AD with the advent of the printing press, parts of the Bible began to slowly make its way into the hands of the people. The people eventually became literate and the false church began to lose its grip on the citizenry.

Reformation

Beginning in the late 16th and early 17th centuries, the old-world church establishment experienced push-back. People began to protest their corrupt religious system. These protesters (pro tes' tants) became the prädestents or as we now know them today – “Protestants”. This led to a reform movement called the Reformation, spawning multiple varieties of religious dogma. These people left the government-run church to form new gatherings based on the words they read from the bits and pieces of the Bible they could find.

The government church fought back, burning the flood of Bible books as fast as they could find them, but to no avail. Bibles poured off the presses faster than the false religion could destroy them. To save their demonic kingdom and power, the apostate Roman Christian Church resorted to mass murdering the saints who saw behind the curtain and refused the tyranny imposed upon them by their state-sponsored religious rulers.

Protestantism

Breaking away from the iron hand of the Roman religion didn't mean these people were smart, and it didn't make them any smarter. All these orphans had to strike out on their own was a life-long exposure, indoctrination, and brainwashing into a very bad, corrupt, government sponsored religion, void of truth, and some pretty church windows. They did not have, and knew nothing of the abiding Spirit of God as this was not a feature of their former religion.

While they now had the freedom to follow what each person found in the Bible, they had no solid foundational knowledge of anything true, and did not understand how it all fit together. Many groups had only pieces of the Bible and not the full text as we have today. At best, they had a small, incomplete picture of the whole; barley a piece of the puzzle. The Anabaptists with their faulty fixation and obsession on adult baptism by immersion is a good example.

Fun Fact: The Ana-baptists found bits of Bible text that spoke of John's baptism. This was adult baptism of consenting men and women who understood the choice they were making in following God. The current culture baptized babies to save their souls and the Ana-baptists took exception to the practice. Long story short, the baby baptizers took exception with the “re-baptizers” and killed them.

This was unfortunate and unnecessary. Water baptism, young or old, does nothing for a person as the practice was rendered obsolete with God's gift of the abiding Spirit. This is Paul's baptism. Neither camp understood this, both were wrong as both were biblically ignorant.

The reformers had “Sola this and Sola that”, not to mention “Sola Scriptura”. However, without the Spirit of God, and with their “Scriptures Only” being nothing more than ink on paper, there was not the spiritual discernment to understand and so, what they read was misunderstood and misapplied., They never understood the Bible and still do not understand it today - 500 years later. These Protestant religions were no better / are no better than every other false, fortune cookie religion on the planet, their adherents trying to improve themselves through self-effort and by reading words off of a page. Can't happen. It is God in man that makes the Body of Christ unique from the other worthless religions, and alone is able to change a person's life. The Body of Christ is not a religion. It is the Spirit of God indwelling. These people did not have the advantage of the Spirit of God, only the false religion of their ancestors. This lack of God's Spirit is the theme throughout the entire Christian history in all their councils, creeds, edicts, writings, denominations, sermons and teachings up to this day. Completely blind and lost.

See the article on this site "Size Doesn't Matter" (PPGpilot.com)

So, there were problems:

1. The people did not have the indwelling Spirit of God as the Spirit was not / is not a feature of the Roman pagan religion. Protestantism inherited this condition.
2. They were not part of the Body of Christ / new creations in Christ.
3. As a result, they practiced a religion about God, did not have a relationship with God, and did not have the truth of God because they did not have the Spirit of God.
4. They could only do what seemed right in their own eyes. With little to work with, they persevered with what they knew and understood which was the errors of Augustinian Theology and creeds, and councils, and edicts, all flawed with man's wisdom and perspective, void of Spiritual discernment.
5. With incomplete information, they began creating doctrines leading to religions that were not biblical. Sadly, what began then in ignorance remains to this day in ignorance.

No Change, No Gain

The root of the problem is simple: while the reformation set a new course for the people in moving away from past religious ignorance, lawlessness, debauchery, mistakes, and excesses, the reformers traveled in the same direction theologically with the same interpretation of the scriptures held by their former ecclesiastical ball and chain namely, the Covenant religion of Augustine. Protestantism is the cousin of the Roman Church, cut from the same cloth that is Augustinian Theology.

Martin Luther, the Catholic priest credited for initiating the reformation, never stopped being a Catholic, and never changed his theology. He simply wanted a Catholic religion free of corruption and state sponsorship.

Instead of changing course and wiping the slate clean, the reformers retained their former dogma based on the four Jewish Gospels, and assumed all of scripture belonged to the Gentile Christian church. Using the four Jewish Gospels as their guide, the Jewish Hebrew epistles as doctrine, not having the Spirit of God, and ignoring God's messenger to the Gentiles, the Apostle Paul, all they had was ink on paper. Try as they might, this led to a mish-mash of Bible verses taken out of context, misunderstandings, wrong doctrines, an explosion of fragmented views, and a broken religious structure that persists to this day.

Reading the Bible in this Covenant way, through allegory and spiritualizing the scriptures, negates the truth of the Bible. So, while the reformers forged a foundation free of the old church hypocrisy, it remained enslaved to the previous 1500 years of old church teachings and errors. Again, that is what we have today in the current religious system.

Throughout the 17th, 18th, and 19th centuries, a plethora of religious opinions, ideas, and convictions emerged in the form of many groups with various concepts of what each thought the Bible said and meant, but every thought had to pass through the Covenant filter. A bad foundation always produces a bad result. Hence, these religions of the Reformation changed little in 400 plus years. It was not until the 20th century that we see a notable change in the religious landscape, and not for the better.

Fun Fact: What passes for religion today is an out-of-context understanding of God and the Bible. Satan has so succeeded in his ploy to destroy God's attempt to save mankind that today, with billions of Bibles in circulation, due to misteaching and a lack of God's Spirit, even while holding their Bibles in their hands, no one has a Bible.

Satan, who hid the Bible for 1500 years, has hidden God's word yet again, this time in plain sight, in every church, in every home, and in every hand, rendering them totally useless by way of confusion. All the while the people, overflowing with religion of every kind, believing they have the truth, wallow in deception, lost, blind, separated from God, and damned for all eternity.

It's ingenious!

20th Century to the Present

The dawn of the 20th century ushered in the beginnings of religious change, setting off a Noah-esk 120 year final countdown of humanity.

Fun Fact: The last 120 years of mankind is a final countdown in a model of the 120 years God gave to Noah before the global flood. Today, we have also reached the end of the 120th Jubilee from Adam, we are 6000 years from Adam, and at the end of the 2000-year Age of Grace. We are also at the generational end from the beginning of man (65 generations from Adam to Christ and 65 generations from Christ to today).

Fun Fact: Since Adam, people lived very much the same way with little more than a horse, the wheel, and wood for their fire. In the last 120 years, mankind progressed from the horse and buggy to what you see today. Space prevents a list of all the accomplishments of mankind. This is a build-up to the final events that will end man on earth as we know it, a time foreknown from the beginning of the world, etched in stone, immovable - it will not delay. God wants us to know the time of the end and you can find this listed many times throughout the Bible. For a full understanding, see the article on this site "The End is Now" PPGpilot.com

Pentecostalism

The Pentecostal movement is the poster child of the religious change that began 120 years ago in the morphing of religion from fundamental to the notably liberal, progressive, and experiential. This is also the beginning of the demise of the Christian religion, which never had God or the Spirit of God.

Beginning January 1, 1901, Pentecostalism takes off: a religion high on religious experience, emotions, imaginations, dreams, and feelings. It is an intense worship style affecting and infecting numerous mainline denominations, spreading across the globe, ultimately affecting hundreds of millions for the worse with a false gospel, a false spirit, a false god, a false Jesus, with a total disregard for, and no understanding of, the Bible.

With its beginnings in Protestantism, this man-made religion quickly found itself in a category of its own as it is no longer attached to the Bible. While the same can be said of Protestantism, the Pentecostal and Charismatic types kick it up a notch with a dependence and addiction on emotion, external experience, non-existent miracles, babbling incoherently, and making their “imaginary spirit” their god of worship. Protestantism at least uses Bible words to construct their theological mistakes and errors. Not so the Charismatic. They do not even pretend to have a biblical base and show no need or desire to define themselves or their actions by God’s Word.

The Progressive Demise of Sound Doctrine

In the years that followed the Charismatic debut, others introduced their errant imaginings and ideas with extra-biblical concepts never seen before. These were anti-biblical doctrines, anti-Christian doctrines, Antichrist doctrines, charlatans, TV personalities with a false gospel of “money for money”, evangelicalism and other misinformed religions leading to the further degradation of Protestantism in doctrine, in worship, and in teaching. Every bit of this change directly attributable to the Covenant Theology that diluted an already diluted Bible understanding at the onset of “the church” through Augustinian imaginings centuries earlier.

It is not only the failed Christian religion that is changing the world. Anti-god religions are on the rise like never before: atheism, agnosticism, humanism, paganism, earth worship, animal worship, climate worship, idolatry, porno-sex worship, sexual perversions of all types, racism, cults, the occult, witchcraft, satanism, and the list goes on. False religions once contained by time and distance, now find their way with ease to every corner of the Globe: Muslim-ism (Islam), Hinduism, and religions of the far east are in every back yard, all leading the world in a return to a modern-day Babel and the final Judgment of God against a wicked humanity.

Fun Fact: I am sure people a century ago, watching the growth of progressive liberal Christianity, wondered how it would all turn out. Today, a century later, we know: progressive liberal religion is, without a doubt, a hands-down, colossal, unmitigated failure of epic proportions that spiritually bankrupted the entire Protestant religion, wrecked the culture, and altered the eternity of hundreds of millions of its followers for the worse, needlessly condemning the majority to the Tribulation.

Protestant Evangelical Covenant Progressiveness, through their numerous errors including seeker sensitive, seeker friendly, seeker driven, false gospel, self-help , phony Jesus religions, and their new-age, far east mystical theology in Emergent-ism, have progressively “progressed” down the toilet and now flounder in apostasy, ripe for judgment.

Today

Anyone with the Spirit of God, and the slightest bit of Bible knowledge, saw the inevitability of today decades ago. Like standing on a hill and watching two trains rounding the bend in the distance, racing toward each other on the same track, each unaware of the other. You know what is going to happen. You can yell and scream to your hearts content, but you are completely powerless to affect change or stop the madness. The people at the wheel are too far off and couldn't hear you even if they were listening, which they are not. All you can do is sit quietly and watch the spectacular crash and the carnage. To say that religion today, and our global culture in general, is some kind of massive spiritual train wreck would be a gross understatement.

For so long the stage was being set for our generation to see the culmination of the battle between the forces of good and evil. And now we are at the convergence: the end of the planned 6000 years of humanity, after 120 Jubilees from Adam, at the end of the 2000-year Age of Grace, and the end of the 120 years of the technological build-up that will be our demise. And let's not forget the birth pangs. We now stand at the culmination of all things, our world having reached the end of itself, right on schedule. It is not at all unexpected and not a moment too soon.

This is God's plan from the beginning of the ages, His timing on His terms, and we are front row, center stage. What past generations saw dimly and hoped for, prayed for with anticipation, is finally upon us. We today find ourselves in the most enviable position of anyone who has ever lived at any other time in the history of mankind: watching from the comfort of our sofas on our big screen TV's, the climactic conclusion of God's dealings with mankind. In so many ways, it is exciting, exhilarating, a welcome relief, and a joy to behold.

The Future

From the perspective of the Biblicist looking at the Bible, the past, and the current culture, you do not need a crystal ball to know what is about to happen. The immediate future is not at all a mystery and there is only one possible outcome looming ahead on the not-so-distant horizon.

As of this writing, January 2022, the pace of global spiritual decline has increased dramatically in the last 24 months. Evil has taken hold on a united global scale like never before, moving forward boldly, brazenly, with plans to remake the world into their own ungodly, satanic image. Evil will continue to increase at an unprecedented rate, becoming more emboldened in the days and months ahead. Moves toward a central government, global economy and currency, and a one world religion are already long in the works, quickly conforming to the images seen in the Book of the Revelation.

Religion will continue in apostasy, morphing further downward – if it can possibly go any lower. It has already replaced sound Bible doctrine with self-help sermons, a focus on social issues, social reform, encouraging community involvement, while chanting phrases like “make disciples for Jesus”

“follow Jesus”, “be like Jesus”, “share the love of Jesus”, and other trite euphemisms as they promote their fictitious, fantasy, false god in a corrupt version of the biblical savior. They will increase the promotion of false truth in pseudo-science while prescribing heavy doses of humanism in the personal “take charge”, “you can overcome” pep talks from the pulpit to help their members deal with their depression and emptiness and loss in their godless lives and religion. Do not expect to hear anything resembling spiritual guidance, hope, truth, or sound doctrine from these false religions. That time has long past.

Technology will continue forward with an ever-increasing intrusion into the lives of the people, and privacy and freedom will continue to wane.

The birth pangs Christ mentioned have been happening since 1900 in the 120 year final countdown of mankind. This included two world wars, one using nuclear force, and scores of other military actions around the globe. As the end approaches, there will be a crescendo of global unrest, more wars, gang violence, and personal acts of terror against one another. There will be a focus on Israel and the middle-east, all leading to the last seven years of God’s time line. If you want to read that story, checkout the Book of the Revelation.

As the world barrels toward its destiny and destruction, earths inhabitants are blissfully and ignorantly unaware of the signs of the times as they unfold right before their very eyes. Without the ability to understand the Bible, with no knowledge of God, denying God, they see the rising temperatures, droughts, fires, volcano eruptions, thawing glaciers, melting ice and permafrost, earthquakes and tsunamis, rising oceans and ocean temperatures fueling raging storms, hurricanes, tornadoes, typhoons, blizzards, floods, temperature fluctuations, wandering jet streams, and mudslides, and in their search for a reason, they blame it all on “climate change”. The climate may be changing, but it is not due to man or machine, but the hand of the Almighty Creator God turned against a wicked world. Think “birth pangs”.

If you think God turning up the temperature a few degrees is some big deal, just wait. You ain't seen nothin' yet!

Somewhere in all this, sometime very soon, Christ removes his Church, the Body of Christ, consisting of a remnant of those few individuals who have the Spirit of God.

Then things get interesting...
